

LEADERSHIP TEAM

EVEREST GROUP
INTERNATIONAL

MANAGING DIRECTOR

Whitney Eckler

Based in Switzerland and Germany, Whitney is a C-level Sales and Marketing executive, interim manager, and founding member of Everest Group International and Everest Group Global. Whitney is an integral part of the M&A group at Everest Group International, working on both buy and sell-side transactions in all aspects of the process. With over 20 years of domestic and international experience in strategy, marketing, and total business development and management, she has also worked and resided in Finland and Kuwait as well as undertaken business development initiatives in a variety of European, Asian, Middle East, and Latin American markets. Whitney is fluent in German and has knowledge of French, Spanish, Finnish, and Arabic. Her global consumer products and manufacturing experience crosses multiple industries and includes decorative interior products, furniture, healthcare, logistics, packaging, construction, and technology industries. She started up the International Division for LouverDrape, served as Interim Vice President Sales and Marketing at QualServ Corporation, and as interim marketing manager for a $400 million public company. She also has repeated experience devising sales and growth strategies as part of a company's re-launch post-crisis. Her corporate background includes Maidenform, LouverDrape, National Semiconductor, and Wipak Oy. (B.S., B.A., Economics and German, Vanderbilt University)