

EVEREST GROUP
INTERNATIONAL

LEADERSHIP TEAM

DIRECTOR

Doug King

Doug is a CIO, COO, and CAO-level executive who provides IT assessment, advisory, and implementation services. He specializes in IT strategy development, due diligence and integration, organizational assessment and design, Cybersecurity, and management of IT transformation initiatives. Doug's background also includes oversight, design, and development of cloud-based custom software applications, including IoT-based solutions enabling the monetization of customer data. He has directed over 20 enterprise-wide system implementations and transformation efforts. Doug has over 25 years of experience spanning numerous industries including manufacturing, healthcare, life sciences, construction products, publishing/media, and aerospace. His corporate background includes Booz-Allen and Landauer. His operational leadership roles also include Senior Vice President, Executive Vice President, Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing, Corporate Vice President of Operations, Director of Supply Chain Management, and Program Office Director, along with consulting positions at Arthur Andersen. (B.A., Economics and Mathematics, Northwestern University; M.B.A., Kellogg Graduate School of Management, Northwestern University; Masters Manufacturing Engineering Management, McCormick School of Engineering, Northwestern University)